Employee agreements for overseas personnel

1. The attached agreements, concerning the individuals listed below, are forwarded to your office for perusal and study, as certain of the employees are preparing to depart in the near future for their overseas stations.

2. Any changes deemed necessary should be noted on the agreements when they are returned to this unit for filing. If changes are suggested, and it is possible, it might be advisable for the agreements to be returned to this unit prior to the departure overseas of the employees concerned, in order that the changes or corrections may be made in their presence and if necessary another signature obtained.
